MESSAGE:

Sir:

Per your kind invitation to be consulted on the proposed claim amendments the Applicant presents the proposal enclosed. As currently viewed, and subject to your comments, claim 1 would be canceled in favor of a newly added claim 12 which we believe contains all your suggestions.

I will try to reach you on Tuesday and Wednesday next week to discuss these corrections. Your assistance and kind courtesies are greatly appreciated.

Thank you,

Mike Bak-Boyчук

REMARKS

The Applicant's counsel expresses his appreciation for all the courtesies and patient assistance extended by the Examiner in the course of these several rejections and also for the invitation of an informal claim review expressed in the Office Action mailed on July 11, 2007. The proposed new claim 12 in substitution for claim 1 is believed to conform with the substance of the Examiner's suggestions, including however some minor additional corrections.

Should the Applicant's foregoing proposal be accepted by the Examiner claims 4-7 and 12 would remain in the case, with claim 1 then being canceled and the limitations thereof transferred to the independent claim 12.

Date: August 31, 2007

Respectfully submitted,
